

2015 Junior Course Reporter Program

- WHAT: A unique opportunity for participants of The First Tee of Connecticut to be the eyes and ears of the Travelers Championship as a Junior Course Reporter. Junior Course Reporters will be exposed to a wide variety of topics involved with the tournament including visits with the PGA Tour staff, members of the print and television media, caddies and players. During the experience, Junior Course Reporters will post entries to their own blog housed on www.pgatour.com and www.thefirstteect.org and gain insight into what it's like to cover a professional golf event. They will also interact with golf media and PGA TOUR executives, and may have the opportunity to participate in a question and answer session with the players.
- WHEN: Wednesday, June 24 and Thursday, June 25 during the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Exact timeline will not be available until after applicants are selected.
- WHERE: TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, CT
- WHO: The First Tee of Connecticut and the Travelers Championship, in conjunction with the PGA TOUR, are excited to offer this opportunity to two (2) eligible participants from The First Tee of Connecticut to cover the tournament from an insider's perspective.
